Examples of persons or designees that Buyer may designate include Buyer's independent auditors and representatives of any local, state, federal, or foreign government entity, authority, agency, court, or commission and any

- applicable arbitrator having jurisdiction over Buyer or its activities related to a Purchase Order.
- e. For Records maintained in electronic databases, spreadsheets, or other software applications, Buyer's right to access and inspection under this Section extends to the Record itself. If Buyer reasonably believes that accessing the underlying database, spreadsheet, or application is necessary to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Record, Buyer may request such access. Seller shall cooperate with such requests, providing access in a manner that protects Seller's confidential information and minimizes disruption to Seller's operations. This may include, but is not limited to, providing extracts of relevant data, allowing on-site inspection under Seller's supervision, or utilizing a secure third-party platform for data review.
 - f. Some Records required by this Section may also fall within the definition of Deliverables or within Seller's Existing Intellectual Capital that is incorporated into the Deliverable (as described in Section 39). Seller's obligations under this Section do not diminish Seller's other obligations toward, or Buyer's property rights to, such Records. Seller's obligations to maintain Records under this Section are extinguished to the extent that Seller properly satisfies another obligation in these Terms or any Purchase Order to deliver or to dispose of such Records.
 - g. Buyer will pay its own expenses for any inspection of the Records or Seller's premises. However, if in any audit, Buyer determines that material issues exist that result, resulted, or will result in an overcharge of one percent (1%) or more of the invoiced amount for the audited period, Seller will, within thirty (30) days of receipt of Buyer's notice and supporting documentation, reimburse Buyer for its out-of-pocket costs incurred in conducting the audit, in addition to any remedies that Buyer may have for the overcharge (such as a refund). This subsection is intended as a fair allocation of audit expenses, not as damages or a penalty.
 - h. Seller shall provide Buyer with immediate notice of any governmental or regulatory review, audit or inspection of its facilities, processes, or products that might relate to the Deliverables, or products furnished to Buyer under these Terms pursuant to a Purchase Order.
 - i. At Buyer's request, a representative of Seller shall accompany Buyer to meet with representatives of the United States Food and Drug Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, United States Environmental Protection Agency, or similar Governmental Authorities to explain or discuss any and all aspects of the Deliverables. Such visit shall be arranged at times mutually agreeable to Buyer and Seller. All reasonable travel expenses incurred by Seller in connection with such visits shall be reimbursed by Buyer.

24. CUSTOMS AND IMPORTS:

- a. Importer of Record. The parties agree that any Imported Products or Deliverables shipped to the United States in conjunction with Seller's performance of its obligations under any Purchase Order will be imported by Seller and delivered to Seller's United States facility before any shipment to Buyer's designated facility. Alternatively, if agreed by Buyer, Seller may "drop ship" Imported Products or Deliverables directly to Buyer's designated facility. In all cases where it is permitted by Applicable Law, unless otherwise directed by Buyer, Seller shall be the "importer

- of record” and shall comply with its obligations as defined in 19 U.S.C. § 1484 including: (i) payment of all import related fees or expenses, customs duties and fees, and fees for custom house brokerage; (ii) arrangement of all logistics for importation, including selection of custom house brokers, carriers, and freight forwarders; (iii) obtaining and filing all necessary import documentation, authorizations, and declarations; and (iv) compliance with all Applicable Laws related to the exportation of such materials from the country(ies) of origin. Seller shall retain title and risk of loss or other damage to materials until received by Buyer or its designee.
- b. Country of Origin. Imported Products or Deliverables of non-United States origin must be clearly marked with the country of origin (for customs purposes) on each container or on the merchandise as applicable. The United States Customs country of origin is generally the country of manufacture, production, or growth.
- c. Invoices for Imported Products. For Imported Products or Deliverables, invoices (both commercial and pro forma) must be submitted through Ariba or web-enabled EDI and contain (written in English) sufficient information and detail as reasonably required by Buyer to comply with applicable customs requirements. A pro forma invoice is one provided for customs valuation purposes only, is not expected to be directly paid by Buyer and should contain the statement: “Value for Customs purposes only.” Shipping invoices and commercial invoices must use consistent valuations for goods. Any exception to Ariba or EDI submission requires prior written approval from Buyer's designated procurement representative.
- d. Tariff and Regulatory Changes. Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize or avoid any tariff-related costs affecting the Products or Deliverables, including pursuing available tariff preference programs or other relief. Seller shall not pass through any new or increased tariffs, duties, taxes, or similar government-imposed charges without prior written notice and reasonable information supporting the basis and impact of such costs. Any tariff-related adjustment must be limited to the actual, unavoidable cost impact and shall not apply to Products manufactured, shipped, or imported before the change took effect. Pricing shall revert promptly when the applicable tariff or government charge is reduced, suspended, or repealed. Express Consignment Couriers. Under certain circumstances, shipment by express consignment courier (e.g., FedEx, DHL, Express World Courier, etc.) may be preferred. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in these instances, Seller shall ship Imported Products or Deliverables, at its own expense, using an express consignment courier nominated by Seller and agreed to by Buyer. Seller will provide to the courier for each article in the shipment documentation that includes, as appropriate, (i) detailed descriptions; (ii) six-digit tariff code from the Harmonized Tariff Schedule; (iii) statement of intended use; (iv) fair value; (v) country of origin; (vi) name and address of manufacturer if different than shipper; (vii) contact information for both sender and receiver of the shipment; and (viii) other information or documentation (e.g., FDA End Use Letter, USDA Declaration, etc.) as required by the courier to effect export and import clearances and enable transportation to Buyer’s designated facility.
- e. Trade Security Programs. Buyer takes measures to secure its supply chains against acts of terrorism, including an assessment of security practices, using the criteria established under the United States Department of Homeland Security’s Customs-Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (C-TPAT) and Importer Security Filing (ISF) programs, and the European Union's Authorized Economic Operator (AEO) program. Seller shall provide information to Buyer, in the form, quality, and detail reasonably required by Buyer, to enable Buyer to comply with applicable customs trade security requirements. Seller's failure to provide the required information in a timely manner may preclude shipment of Imported Products or Deliverables to the United States. If Seller participates in Customs Industry Partnership Program, Carrier Initiative Programs, Super Carrier Initiative Program, or Business Anti- Smuggling Coalition, Seller shall notify Buyer.

- 25. EXPORT INFORMATION: For each Deliverable, Seller shall provide to Buyer a proposed ECCN. Buyer will make the final determination regarding the appropriate ECCN. Seller shall provide reasonable assistance to Buyer, at no additional charge to Buyer, to enable Buyer to determine the appropriate ECCN. If Seller is authorized by Buyer to file export clearance documentation (such as Electronic Export Information in the United States) with any Governmental Authority on Buyer's behalf, Seller shall: (i) accurately prepare and timely file such export clearance documentation as required by Applicable Law based on information provided by Buyer or by other parties involved in the transaction; (ii) retain such export clearance filings, whether electronically or otherwise, and documentation to support the information provided in the filing of such clearance documents for a period of at least five (5) years from the date of export; and (iii) upon request, provide Buyer in a mutually agreed format a copy of export clearance documents filed, electronically or otherwise, by Seller on behalf of Buyer. In the event that Seller is uncertain of or is missing specific information required for the filing of export clearance documentation, or has questions about any other legal or factual issue related to an export, Seller shall promptly inquire of Buyer concerning such uncertainty, missing information, or question.
- 26. TAXES: Each party will be responsible for its own taxes, including property taxes on property it owns or leases, income taxes on its business, and any other taxes incurred by such party in connection with its business and with performing its obligations hereunder. Buyer will be responsible for any transaction taxes properly collectible from Buyer under Applicable Law. Seller will be responsible for payment of any transaction taxes that are, under Applicable Law, properly borne by Seller, including, but not limited to all export and import taxes. The calculation of taxes shall not include, and Buyer shall not pay, any taxes that are related to intra-corporate transfers or intermediate supplies of the services between Seller and its affiliates or between Seller's Affiliates and related entities.
- 27. REIMBURSABLE TRAVEL AND EXPENSES: In the event that travel and other out-of-pocket expenses are included in an approved Purchase Order, Buyer will reimburse Seller only for Seller's actual, reasonable, proper, out-of-pocket expenses, with no additional overhead, profit margin, administrative charges, handling fees, or other markup, directly attributable to the Purchase Order in accordance with Buyer's Travel Policy located at <https://www.elanco.com/en-us/suppliers>.

If any Purchase Order under this Agreement involves software or information technology hardware or services, the following terms shall apply in addition to the terms set out above, and the terms below shall control over any conflicting terms above:

28. LICENSE: Seller hereby grants to Buyer, and Buyer hereby accepts, on the following terms and conditions, a nonexclusive and nontransferable, fully paid-up, irrevocable, world-wide, perpetual (unless otherwise expressly specified in the applicable Purchase Order) license to use the software for the number of users or copies of the software provided on the Purchase Order (the “License”). Unless specified otherwise on the applicable Purchase Order, the License shall be an enterprise license for all applicable CPUs and available for use by Buyer, its Affiliates, third party service providers, and other necessary parties. All license limitations on use by Buyer (per user, type of user (named, concurrent, etc.), per CPU, per node, per server, etc.) shall be specifically stated in the applicable Purchase Order or shall be of no effect. Seller and Buyer expressly agree that any software shrink-wrap and click-through software licensing agreements or other such terms shall not apply to any software purchased or licensed under any Purchase Order.

29. USE OF SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION:

- a. Buyer may, as part of the License, make additional copies of the software and documentation to support the licensed software and documentation. Buyer may also make backup and archival copies of the software and documentation. Unless otherwise provided on the applicable Purchase Order, Buyer shall have the right to use the software on or in connection with any CPU that Buyer utilizes to fulfil its data processing needs. Buyer reserves the right to use the software at one or more sites and to transfer such software to any location as it may determine.
- b. Buyer, its agents, contractors, assignees and employees shall have the right to unlimited use of the software and to operate and use the software at any time and for any period of time at the convenience of Buyer within the scope of the License. Buyer may use the software acquired hereunder for such purposes and functions as may be necessary or convenient for Buyer’s business purposes, including processing affiliated companies and third party data, and the use of such software shall not be restricted to any particular purpose or function.
- c. The License granted herein on the Purchase Order shall commence upon execution of the applicable Purchase Order.

30. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES FOR IT PRODUCTS:

- a. Seller represents and warrants that the IT Products (or any update thereto) shall conform to and will operate in accordance with the Purchase Order and all documentation and specifications supplied by Seller to Buyer.
- b. Seller warrants that all tapes, diskettes or other electronic media provided to Buyer hereunder will be free from defects during the warranty period. Seller shall, within five (5) days of notification by Buyer of such defect, replace any defective electronic media at no additional cost to Buyer.

- c. Seller represents and warrants that it shall at all times document the operation of the IT Products in a manner consistent with the best practices of the software development industry, and such documentation shall accurately reflect the operation of the IT Products and enable a person reasonably skilled in computer programming and in possession of the IT Products source code to use and maintain the IT Products fully and completely.
- d. Seller represents and warrants that any equipment delivered hereunder shall be delivered to Buyer with the full warranty granted by the original manufacturer of the equipment still effective. Notice regarding warranty claims raised by Buyer due to defects and/or nonconformities in the equipment or in the operation of the equipment shall be given only to Seller, and upon receipt of such a notice, Seller shall take the steps necessary to effect repair of the equipment.
- e. Seller represents and warrants that if maintenance services are elected by Buyer, the maintenance services agreement shall become effective upon installation of the IT Product. Buyer's payment obligations for maintenance services shall begin at the end of the warranty period for the IT Products, and shall renew annually unless otherwise terminated by Buyer, provided Seller notifies Buyer in writing thirty (30) days in advance of such renewal date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer's failure to install or utilize any improvements, enhancements or newly released versions of the IT Products shall have no effect on the Seller's provision of maintenance services. Seller warrants and represents that maintenance services for an IT Product shall be available from Seller for the greater of two (2) years from the acceptance date of the IT Product by Buyer or the current version plus the one (1) prior version. Seller shall provide to Buyer as part of maintenance services, updates and upgrades to the IT Products at no additional cost to Buyer.
- f. The occurrence in or use by the IT Product supplied by Seller of any dates will not adversely affect its performance with respect to date dependent data, computations, output, or other functions (including, without limitation, calculating, comparing, and sequencing) and that the IT Product will create, store, process and output information related to or including dates without errors or omissions and at no additional cost to Buyer. At Buyer's request, Seller will provide sufficient evidence to demonstrate the adequate testing of the IT Product to meet the foregoing requirements.
- g. Seller warrants that unless (i) authorized in writing by Buyer; or (ii) necessary to perform valid duties under the IT Products documentation, any IT Products provided to Buyer by Seller for use by Buyer or Seller shall: (a) contain no hidden files; (b) not replicate, transmit, or activate itself without control of a person operating computing equipment on which it resides; (c) not alter, damage, or erase any data or computer programs without control of a person operating the computing equipment on which it resides; and (d) contain no key, node lock, time-out or other function, whether implemented by electronic, mechanical or other means, which restricts or may restrict use or access to any programs or data developed under the applicable Purchase Order, based on residency on a specific hardware configuration, frequency or duration of use, or other limiting criteria. Provided, and to the extent any IT Product has any of the foregoing attributes, and notwithstanding anything elsewhere in the applicable Purchase Order to the contrary, Seller shall be in default of such Purchase Order, and no cure period shall apply. In addition to any other remedies available to it under this Purchase Order, Buyer reserves the right to pursue any civil and/or criminal penalties available to it against the Seller.

- h. Seller warrants that it shall not use or incorporate Buyer Property in Seller's software or products.

31. INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY LICENSE OR MAINTENANCE TERMINATION:

- a. In the event of a breach by Seller of any of its representations, warranties or obligations under the applicable Purchase Order, these Terms, or a maintenance agreement, Buyer may terminate either the License, as well as any associated maintenance services, or the maintenance services (if any) alone, upon thirty (30) days' notice to Seller, provided that Seller has not cured the breach within such notice period. If Buyer terminates the License and the maintenance services based on such breach, Seller shall refund any and all amounts paid hereunder by Buyer for the License and shall refund on a pro rata basis any and all amounts paid hereunder by Buyer for the maintenance services. Sixty (60) days after termination of the License pursuant to this Section, Buyer shall discontinue further use of such License. Buyer shall, upon written request by Seller, provide Seller with written certification indicating the destruction of all copies of the applicable software in Buyer's possession or under its custody or control.
 - i. If Buyer terminates only the maintenance services, Seller shall refund on a pro rata basis any and all amounts paid hereunder by Buyer for maintenance services. Buyer shall retain all of its rights under the License.
 - ii. The other provisions of the Purchase Order and these Terms shall survive termination of any License.

32. UCITA: Seller and Buyer hereby acknowledge and agree that any provisions of any state law adopting exactly or in modified form the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act ("UCITA") shall not be applicable to this Purchase Order. Furthermore, both Buyer and Seller waive any and all rights arising from any such law.

33. DATA: Buyer owns all rights to any data or results generated as a result of the use of the IT Products and may use, execute, display, copy, manipulate and create derivatives of any data or results generated as a result of the use of the IT Products and such data and results shall be considered Buyer Property.

If any Purchase Order under this Agreement involves performance by Seller of installation, maintenance, or other services, the following terms shall apply in addition to the terms set out above and the terms below shall control over any conflicting terms above:

34. LABOR FURNISHED BY SELLER: Seller acknowledges and agrees that in performing services, Seller will be acting solely as an independent contractor, and neither Seller nor any of its employees, associated consultants, Subcontractors or employees of said consultants or Subcontractors shall be deemed to be employees of Buyer for any purpose. Except as allowed by the “Subcontractors” provisions below, all persons employed by Seller in the performance of the services are employees of Seller. Seller shall carry such employees on its payrolls and will be solely responsible for and will make all withholdings and payments related to such persons’ employment in accordance with Applicable Law including payments and withholdings related to:

wages, benefits, payroll taxes and withholdings as required by federal state and local authorities.

- 35. TRADE SECRETS: If Seller is an individual providing services under these Terms, Seller understands that Seller will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (a) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (b) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Seller further understands that if Seller files a lawsuit for retaliation by an employer for reporting a suspected violation of law, Seller may disclose trade secrets to Seller’s attorney and use the trade secret in the proceeding (i) if Seller files any such document containing a trade secret under seal; and (ii) Seller does not disclose the trade secret except pursuant to court order.
- 36. SUBCONTRACTORS: Seller shall not use any Subcontractor without the prior written approval of Buyer. Subject to the foregoing, if Seller should use a Subcontractor, Seller shall be fully responsible for services performed by the Subcontractor to the same extent as if the services were performed directly by Seller and ensure that such Subcontractors comply with all of the requirements of these Terms and the applicable Purchase Order. Seller shall not subcontract any performance hereunder to any parties that are on any excluded or denied party list of any agency of the United States government, or a party whose export privileges are currently denied, suspended or revoked by the United States government. Seller has communicated all necessary terms and obligations to Subcontractors, if any, who will be performing work hereunder so that the Subcontractor may appropriately carry out its obligations pursuant to these Terms.
- 37. VERIFICATION AND ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICES: Seller shall document each maintenance or service call with a work order, which shall be signed by Buyer’s representative and submitted with Seller’s invoice.
- 38. LIENS: Seller agrees and warrants that no mechanics’ liens shall attach to Buyer’s property by virtue of Seller’s default in paying its employees, suppliers or Subcontractors.
- 39. OWNERSHIP OF DELIVERABLES: Buyer shall own all right, title and interest, including Intellectual Property Rights, in the Deliverables, and Seller hereby assigns and conveys such right, title and interest to Buyer. All originals and copies of the Deliverables shall be delivered to Buyer upon the earliest of the completion of the services, the termination or suspension of the services, or the written request of Buyer. Any work product that constitutes “work made for hire” (within the meaning of United States copyright law) will be treated as such. Seller agrees to execute, without further consideration, assignments or other documents that may be necessary to establish Buyer's ownership of the Deliverables. Seller shall cooperate with Buyer or its designees and execute documents of assignment, declarations, and other documents which may be prepared by Buyer, and take other necessary actions as reasonably directed by Buyer, to effect the foregoing or to perfect or enforce any proprietary rights resulting from or related to these Terms or a Purchase Order. Such cooperation and execution shall be performed without additional compensation to Seller; provided, however, Buyer shall reimburse Seller for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred at the specific request of Buyer. Seller shall cause each of Seller's employees charged with performance of services for Buyer or granted access to confidential information to execute an agreement recognizing Buyer's ownership rights and concurring with the obligations of Seller as set forth herein. Seller hereby grants Buyer a non-exclusive, perpetual license to use, copy, and distribute all of Seller's property provided to Buyer as part of the Deliverables hereunder. If the Deliverable incorporates any intellectual property (including software) that Buyer has purchased or licensed from Seller pursuant to another written agreement, then such other agreement or provision shall control each party's rights with respect to such intellectual property. Despite the preceding clauses, Seller retains all Intellectual Property Rights (other than the following license) to any portion of Existing Intellectual Capital that is incorporated into any Deliverable. Seller grants to Buyer and its Affiliates a non- exclusive, world-wide, perpetual royalty-free license to such Existing Intellectual Capital sufficient to allow full lawful use of the Deliverables that incorporate it, including the use of the Deliverables by Buyer's agents and independent contractors solely to furnish services to Buyer or its affiliates. Despite the preceding clauses, if the Deliverables incorporate any Intellectual Property owned or controlled by a third party, then Seller hereby grants to Buyer and its affiliates, or shall acquire on behalf of Buyer and its affiliates, a perpetual, royalty-free, world-wide, non-exclusive license or sublicense sufficient to allow full lawful use of the Deliverables that incorporate it, including the use of the Deliverables by Buyer's agents and independent contractors solely to furnish services to Buyer or its Affiliates. Seller hereby represents and warrants to Buyer that it has or will have the right to grant such license or sublicense and to incorporate such intellectual property into the Deliverable.

- 40. TERMINATION: In addition to the terms in Section 7 (Termination) above, Buyer shall have the right at its absolute discretion, upon (10) business days written notice to Seller, to terminate, in whole or in part, any Purchase Order or any contract of sale resulting from its acceptance. In the event of such termination, Buyer shall have no obligation to Seller except the obligation to pay all costs actually and reasonably incurred by Seller prior to the date of termination plus a normally accepted trade allowance on such costs as full payment of Seller's overhead and profit, provided, however, that in no event shall Buyer be obligated to pay an amount in excess of the amount set out in the applicable Purchase Order; advance payments will be refunded accordingly. If any Purchase Order or any resulting contract is terminated as a result of the default of Seller, Buyer shall have no obligation to reimburse Seller for any services performed by Seller pursuant to Buyer's Purchase Order or any resulting contract. Seller agrees that breach of the Elanco Anti-Bribery Commitments for Suppliers shall be considered a material breach of the Terms and that Buyer may immediately seek all remedies available under law and equity including immediate termination of the Purchase Order.

Seller agrees to register for and maintain an active Ariba/SAP Network account for e-invoicing purposes at no cost for the basic account level. Failure by Seller to register, maintain, or properly use the required Ariba e-invoicing functionality may result in delays in payment processing due to necessary manual handling. Buyer's invoicing system does not allow for partial payment.
